Time of Incident: 12:30

Incident Case #: CFS# 16-5428 & 16-5427

Summary:

Update**

On Tuesday, February 09, 2016 at approximately 12:30 pm a threatening phone call was received at Bristol Central High School (BCH), located at 480 Wolcott Street and at South Side School, located at 21 Tuttle Road.

The threat received at BCH was in reference to a person with a gun on school grounds.

The threat received at South Side School was in reference to a bomb at the school.

Both schools were secured and searched by police, with nothing being found. At this time there appears to be no validity to the threats.

The Bristol Police Department is aware that other police agencies in the state are investigating similar threats made to schools in their cities today and is working with those agencies to determine if the threats are related.
